MINISTRY SUNDAY

This weekend sees a special appeal to all parishioners to get involved in a new way in the life of Ballygall Parish. Around the church there will be different "stalls" with information on ways of taking part in the life of our parish. Perhaps you have the time to get more involved and use your gifts to enhance the life of Our Mother of Divine Grace parish community. Your talent is always welcome and remember, if you feel nervous or shy think of the disciples who struggled when called by Our Lord.

DIOCESAN SAFEGUARDING DAY

This weekend throughout the diocese we are reminded of the good work that our child protection officers are doing to continue safeguarding our children and vulnerable adults in our parish and diocese. As part of this programme those who are volunteering to help in our parish are required to fill out garda vetting forms. These are available in the office at any time. We are all called to play our part in safeguarding our children and vulnerable adults.

Parents are reminded that an adult is required to accompany their child(ren) to the toilet. This helps all our volunteers/staff to fulfil their obligations and protect themselves from any allegations.

SOCIETY OF ST VINCENT DE PAUL CLOTHING APPEAL

The appeal is for clean, good quality clothes, bedclothes, curtains, shoes. Bags will be available outside the church next weekend (30th September & 1st October) and will be collected the weekend after.
