World Day of Migrants and Refugees 2018 – Some Thoughts Welcoming one another

'Welcome one another then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God.' (Rm 15:7) We are called by Christ to welcome one another, regardless of race, creed or religion. We should be engaged in concretely carrying out what truth, justice and love require. We should thus welcome migrants as brothers and sisters.' (Instruction: The Love of Christ towards Migrants, 2004) Are migrants, asylum seekers and refugees made to feel welcome in the parish communities?

Respecting migrants' and refugees' traditions and cultures

'With great respect and attention for the migrants' traditions and culture, we Christians are called to bear witness to the gospel of love and peace in our dealings with them.' (Instruction: The Love of Christ towards Migrants, 2004).

Anam Cara

The National organisation that supports bereaved parents, is holding a Bereavement Information Evening on Wednesday 17th of January from 7:30 to 9.00pm in the Carnegie Court Hotel, Swords, Co. Dublin. Anam Cara offers a safe and comfortable setting where you can "drop the mask" and be yourself with people that understand. This event is open to all bereaved parents regardless of the age your child died, the circumstances of their death or whether it was recent or not. For more information see Anamcara.ie or call the Information Line on 085 2888 888.
