Rome and Assisi Pilgrimage We wish all our parishioners going on this pilgrimage this week a very pleasant and safe journey.

Family Mass is back..

We are delighted to welcome our children back for family mass, which will start again next Sunday 30th September. As always, we would like as many new children to join us with their parents. This weekend, after the 10.30 mass the adult members are meeting and would be delighted to have parents join us.

Autumn Liturgy Seminar

This will take place on Saturday 29th September in Clonliffe College. There are a range of workshops with various topics available.

- ❖ A Time to be Born – geared towards Baptism Teams in Parishes.
- ❖ A time to Lead – The role of lay people in organising and leading Prayer for a variety of occasions.
- ❖ A Time to Explore – this will explore the concept of Body in worship and its implications for the central act of the Christian Community.
- ❖ A Time to Sing – this will go through the Emmanuel 2019 programme.
- ❖ A Time to Reflect – explores the spirituality of liturgical ministers – who are called to serve their communities in welcoming, reading, distributing holy communion, music etc.
