Family Offering Appeal

Our thanks to the loyal parishioners who contribute weekly through the Family Offering envelopes and through 'Standing Orders' to support the upkeep and maintenance of the parish over the past many years.

However, the numbers contributing have declined in recent years. With this in mind a full canvass of the parish is now proposed. This is a huge task and the members of the Parish Finance committee intend to visit the parish on a phased basis. They will commence with Beneavin Drive over the next few weeks and with the help of others perhaps more areas will be canvassed over the future months. If you are willing to take part in further canvassing of the parish or have suggestions on this venture please let us know through the parish office.

Do This In Memory Masses

Enrolment for children preparing for First Penance & Eucharist takes place this Sunday at 10.30am. Keep them in your prayers as they journey this year in coming to know Jesus the 'Bread of Life' and experience the 'Forgiveness and Mercy of God the Father'.

Skills for Accompanying Parents

The Diocese recently carried out a survey on Sacramental Preparation. One of the key findings was the need to accompany parents who are preparing children for sacraments. A good start can be made to address this need by providing skills-based training for potential parish sacramental teams. With this in mind a course has been developed by the diocese which is based upon growing a general skill base that can be used when working with parents. For more details on this course please contact us in the Parish Office.

What can I do?

Evening of reflection and prayer on 'the Care of Our Common Home', inspired by Laudato Si on Monday 21 October at 8pm in St. Alphonsus monastery. Music led by the Dublin diocesan music group.

Prayer of Cardinal Newman

*May the Lord support us all the day long,
Till the shades lengthen and the evening comes,
and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over,
and our work is done.
Then in his mercy may he give us a safe lodging,
and holy rest, and peace at the last.
Amen.*
