World Mission Sunday (WMS)

This Sunday, 20th October, Pope Francis is asking you and every Catholic worldwide to come together in celebration of World Mission Sunday. On this very special day every Church, in every parish across our globe will give what they can, no matter how little, towards the World Mission Sunday collection. Your contribution will be used to help spread faith, hope and love by supporting overseas missionaries, many of whom work in some of the most impoverished and remote communities. This will replace the usual SHARE collection.

Do you want to help children reach their potential?

Barnardos are seeking extra adult volunteers, aged 55 years and older, who have lots of life experience and an enjoyment of reading, for their volunteer reading programme for primary schools based in Finglas, Dublin 11. Volunteers provide one-to-one reading sessions to children in 1st and 2nd class who need some extra help with their reading. The sessions occur 2 times a week, Monday to Thursday, at fixed set times. The volunteer will be asked to read with 2 children on each visit, which happen during primary school hours. Some of the volunteers who have worked with us have said: "It's enjoyable and very easy", "It is like reading with your grandchildren", "It's not as difficult as you might imagine!", "Children love it and feel special and you bond with the child". For more information or to register your interest in this programme please contact Suzanne, Barnardos Volunteer Service, on 01 7080431 / 086 8570112 or email volunteers@barnardos.ie

Skills for Accompanying Parents

The Diocese recently carried out a survey on Sacramental Preparation. One of the key findings was the need to accompany parents who are preparing children for sacraments. A good start can be made to address this need by providing skills-based training for potential parish sacramental teams. With this in mind a course has been developed by the diocese which is based upon growing a general skill base that can be used when working with parents. For more details, please contact us in the Parish Office.
