— OLD TESTAMENT READINGS —

Reading 1

A reading from the Book of Wisdom

The souls of the virtuous are in the hands of God,
no torment shall ever touch them.

In the eyes of the unwise, they did appear to die,
their going looked like a disaster, their leaving us,
like annihilation; but they are in peace.

If they experienced punishment as people see it, their hope was rich with immortality; slight was their affliction, great will their blessing be.

God has put them to the test and proved them worthy to be with Him. He has tested them like gold in a furnace, and accepted them as a holocaust.

When the time comes for His visitation they will shine out;
as sparks run through the stubble, so will they.
They shall judge nations, rule over peoples,
and the Lord will be their king for ever.

Those who trust in Him will understand the truth,
those who are faithful will live with Him in love;
for grace and mercy await those He has chosen.

The word of the Lord.

Reading 2

A reading from the Book of Wisdom

The virtuous persons, though they die before their time, will find rest.

Length of days is not what makes age honourable nor numbers of years the true measure of life:
understanding, this is a person's grey hairs,
untarnished life, this is ripe old age.
They have sought to please God, so God has loved them;
as they were living among sinners, they have been taken up.

Coming to perfection in so short a while, they achieved long life,
their souls being pleasing to the Lord,
He has taken them quickly from the wickedness around them.

Yet people look on uncomprehending; it does not enter their heads that grace and mercy await the chosen of the Lord, and protection,
His holy ones.

The word of the Lord

Reading 3

A reading from the book of Ecclesiastes

There is a season for everything, a time for every occupation under heaven:

A time for giving birth, and a time for dying;
A time for planting, a time for uprooting what has been planted;
A time for killing, a time for healing;
A time for knocking down, a time for building up;
A time for tears, a time for laughter;
A time for mourning, a time for dancing;
A time for throwing stones away, a time for gathering them up;
A time for embracing, a time to refrain from embracing;
A time for searching, a time for losing;
A time for keeping, a time for throwing away;
A time for tearing, a time for sewing;
A time for keeping silent, a time for speaking;
A time for loving, a time for hating;
A time for war, and a time for peace.

What does a person gain for the efforts that they make?
I contemplate the task that God gives His people to labour at.
All that He does is apt for its time; but though He has permitted
His people to consider time in its wholeness, a person cannot comprehend the work of God from beginning to end.

The word of the Lord.

Reading 4

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich foods.

On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death forever.

The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; He will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so.

That day, it will be said; see, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation:
The Lord is the one in whom we hoped.

We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us.

The word of the Lord.

Reading 5

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The spirit of the Lord has been given to me,
for the Lord has anointed me.
He has sent me to bring the good news to the poor,
to bind up hearts that are broken;

to proclaim liberty to captives,
freedom to those in prison;
to proclaim a year of favour from the Lord,
a day of vengeance of our God;

to comfort all those who mourn and give them
for ashes, a garland;
for mourning robe, the oil of gladness,
for despondency, praise.

The word of the Lord.

Reading 6

A reading from the prophet Micah

With what gift shall I come into the Lord's presence and bow down before God on high?

What is good has been explained to you already.
This is what the Lord asks of you:
only this, to act justly, to love tenderly and to walk humbly with your God.

The word of the Lord.

In the Easter Season, from the Acts of the Apostles/ Book of the Apocalypse.

Reading 7

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

I, John, heard a voice from heaven say to me; “Write down: Happy are those who die in the Lord! Happy indeed, the Spirit says; now they can rest forever after their work, since their good deeds go with them”.

The word of the Lord

Reading 8

A reading from the book of the Acts of the Apostles

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household:

‘The truth I have now come to realise,’ he said, ‘is that God does not have favourites, but that anybody of any nationality who fears God and does what is right is acceptable to Him. ‘It is true, God sent His word to the people of Israel, and it was to them that the good news of peace was brought by Jesus Christ – but Jesus Christ is the Lord of all men and women, and He has ordered us to proclaim this to His people and to tell them that God has appointed Him to judge everyone alive or dead. It is to Him that all the prophets bear this witness; that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through His name.’

The word of the Lord

Whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
before whom shall I shrink? (R)

2. There is one thing I ask of the Lord, for this I long,
to live in the house of the Lord
all the days of my life,
to savour the sweetness of the Lord
to behold His temple. (R)

3. O Lord hear my voice when I call have mercy and answer.
It is Your face, O Lord, that I seek:
hide not Your face. (R)

our God has compassion,
the Lord protects the simple hearts;
I was helpless so He saved me. (R)

'I am sorely afflicted',
and when I said in my alarm:
'No man can be trusted' (R)

is the death of His faithful.

there is nothing I shall want

where He gives me repose.
Near restful waters He leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit. (R)

2. He guides me along the right path;
he is true to His name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with Your crook and Your staff;
with these you give me comfort. (R)

3. You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.
My head You have anointed with oil;
My cup is overflowing. (R)

the Lord has pity on those who fear Him;
for He knows of what we are made,
He remembers that we are dust. (R)

they flower like the flower of the field;
the wind blows and they are gone
and their place never sees them again. (R)

My body pines for You
like a dry weary land without water. (R)
2. So I gaze on You in the sanctuary to see Your strength and Your glory.
For Your love is better than life,
my lips will speak Your praise (R)
3. So I will bless You all my life, in Your name I shall lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
my mouth shall praise You with joy. (R)
4. You have been my help;
in the shadow of Your wings I rejoice.
My soul clings to You;
Your right hand holds me fast. (R)

NEW TESTAMENT READINGS

Reading 1

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans

When we were baptised in Christ Jesus we were baptised in His death; in other words, when we were baptised we went into the tomb with Him and joined Him in death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the Father's glory, we too might live a new life.

But we believe that having died with Christ we shall return to life with Him: Christ, as we know, having been raised from the dead will never die again. Death has no power over Him anymore.

The word of the Lord.

Reading 2

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians.

Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep. Death came through one man and in the same way the resurrection of the dead has come through one man. Just as all die in Adam, so all will be brought to life in Christ, but all of them in their proper order: Christ as the first-fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to Him.

The word of the Lord.

Reading 3

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

Nothing can come between us and the love of Christ, even if we are troubled or worried, or being persecuted, or lacking food or clothes, or being threatened or even attacked. These are the trials through which we triumph, by the power of Him who loves us.

For I am certain of this: neither death nor life, no angel, no prince, nothing exists, nothing still to come, nor any power, or height or depth, nor any created thing, can ever come between us and the love of God made visible in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Reading 4

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord.

This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that He might be Lord both of the dead and of the living. We shall all have to stand before the judgement seat of God; as scripture says: By my life – it is the Lord who speaks – every knee shall bend before Me, and every tongue shall praise God. It is to God, therefore, that each of us must give an account of himself.

The word of the Lord.

Reading 5

A reading the second letter of St. Paul to Timothy

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight
I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

The word of the Lord

Reading 6

A reading from the second letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians

We know that when the tent we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

We are always full of confidence, then, when we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from the Lord, going as we do by faith and not by sight - we are full of confidence. I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with the Lord.

Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing Him. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the court of Christ, and each of us will get what he deserves for the things he did in the body, good or bad.

The word of the Lord

Reading 7

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians

We want you to be quite certain, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people that have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with Him. We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, and any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died.

At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord Himself will come down from heaven; those who died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds, together with them, to meet the Lord in the air. So we shall stay with the Lord forever. With such thoughts are these you can comfort one another.

The word of the Lord.

Reading 8

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Philippians

For us, our homeland is in heaven, and from heaven comes the Saviour we are waiting for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and He will transfigure those wretched bodies of ours into copies of His glorious body. He will do that by the same power with which He can subdue the whole universe.

Reading 9

A reading from St. Paul's letter to the Romans:

Think of God's mercy, I ask you, in a way worthy of thoughtful people. Do not let your love be a pretence, but sincerely prefer good to evil. Love each other as much as brothers should and have a profound respect for each other.

Work for the Lord with untiring effort and earnestness of spirit. If you have hope, this will make you cheerful. Do not give up if trials come; keep on praying.

If any are in need, share with them. And you should make hospitality your special concern.

The word of the Lord

Reading 10

A reading from the first letter of St. Peter

I have something to tell you elders: I am an elder myself and a witness to the sufferings of Christ, and with you I have a share in the glory that is to be revealed. Be the shepherds of the flock of God that is entrusted to you: watch over it, not simply as a duty but gladly, because God wants it; not for sordid money, but because you are eager to do it. Never be a dictator over any group that is put in your charge, but be an example that the whole flock can follow. When the Chief Shepherd appears, you will be given the crown of unfading glory.

The word of the Lord

Reading 11

A reading from the first letter of St. John

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us by letting us be called God's children, and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge Him, therefore it does not acknowledge us.

My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is that when it is revealed we shall be like Him because we shall see Him as He really is.

The word of the Lord
