Trinity Sunday Mass broadcast from Ballygall

RTE will broadcast Mass from Ballygall church this afternoon at 2.15pm on the RTE News channel. Archbishop Dermot Farrell will be celebrant at this Mass and some parishioners will be present. As it is a broadcast mass numbers will be limited and the church will be closed for the duration of the Mass. In order for the team from "icatholic" who are responsible for its broadcast to prepare, the church will be closed from 1.30 until 3.30pm approx. You are welcome to join us hopefully online or by tuning in to the RTE News Channel directly.

The church will be open after 10am Mass until 1.30pm approx and after the televised Mass for private prayer until late Sunday evening.

Our normal Weekend Masses will be 6.30 on Saturday evening and 10am on Sunday morning.

Corpus Christi (June 6th)

Next weekend we will be celebrating the feast of the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ. As part of the preparations for First Holy Communion, children and their parents are especially invited to join us for 10 o'clock Mass next Sunday. At this Mass we will have music and prayers geared towards our younger folk.Mass in Ballygall

There has been a great response since we have reopened for members of the public to attend Mass in Ballygall. Already for the weekend masses we have exceeded our quota and some of our parishioners have unfortunately been unable to join us for worship. Numbers during the week and in particular Saturday morning are well below the limit of 100. As we are still not obliged to attend Sunday Mass, we are so grateful for those who have opted to join us during the week thus facilitating those who can only attend at the weekend. We are hoping to resume the 11.30am Mass in the near future and are still looking for volunteers to help with stewarding and cleaning after this mass to enable more parishioners to join us for Sunday Masses. If you are willing to help, please leave your contact details in the parish office during the week.
