Week of Prayer to the Holy Spirit

A Week of Prayer to the Holy Spirit for the renewal of the Church in Dublin begins next Sunday from May 29 to June 6 – Ascension Sunday through Pentecost to the Feast of Mary, Mother of the Church. As preparations for this you are invited on Monday, May 23, at 8.30pm to get a flavour of the prayer resources that will be available by connecting to the www.rednuns.com webcam. The Sisters of the Monastery of St Alphonsus will lead the prayerful reflections with a bonus offering of music from the Dublin Diocesan Music Group. If you can't make it for the live presentation, check out the recordings section of the monastery website afterwards, where you will find the resource. Copies of the booklet are on our parish website. Language Skills for Refugees The Third Age charity's 'Fáilte Isteach' service is now available in most counties across the State in order to facilitate, in an informal setting, improved English language skills for refugees. This service is free and run by local volunteers. In order to locate the nearest English language class in your location, please see <https://www.thirdageireland.ie/failte-isteach/locations/>.

St Mobhi Church Concert, Friday May 27th @ 8pm

Myles Gaffney is a fantastic singer/songwriter from Cork. He has recently completed his third CD "Soldier On", and we're delighted to have him joining us on May 27th for his official Dublin launch in St Mobhi's church, Glasnevin.

He has had two songs nominated for the Grammy Ballot, and the great Katie Taylor was very impressed with a recent song he wrote in her honour. We're anticipating support from his followers in the Dublin area, and from many local people looking for a good evening's entertainment.

As always, we're keen to promote local talent, and we've invited the OLV Gospel Choir to perform on the night. The show will be opened by Brendan Farrell, who has performed his own show "Take Me Home Kathleen", to packed houses in Ireland and The United States.

Please spread the word, and we look forward to your company on the 27th. Tickets are €15 each and available through Eventbrite
